

ACT: LISTEN AND OBEY

Everyone “should repent and turn to God, performing deeds in keeping with their repentance.” Acts 26:20

HOW DO I BEAR FRUIT IN KEEPING WITH REPENTANCE?

As Disciples of Jesus, we are a Family of Missionary Servants.

The Spirit will always call us to live out our gospel identity. Pray and listen to the Spirit, asking him, “What do you want me to do?” and “Who do you want me to tell?” Consider these questions connected to each of our identities:

FAMILY Identity - We submit to God as our Father as adopted sons and daughters and love one another as brothers and sisters

---

- Who should I love? And how?
- Who do I need to forgive?
- Who do I need to seek forgiveness from?

MISSIONARY Identity - We submit to the Spirit as our Sender and Leader and are empowered to share Jesus with others.

- Who should I spend time with, and how can I be intentional with that time?
- Who can I tell about Jesus’ work in me?

SERVANT Identity - We submit to Jesus as Lord and serve others as though we are serving Jesus

---

- How can I help in tangible ways?
- What should I give (time, money, prayer), and to whom should I give it?

DISCIPLES

- What do I need to avoid that provokes or strengthens sinful desires? How can I flee from and resist temptation?
- What do I need to practice that feeds or increases spiritual desires? How can I pursue holiness and godliness?
